Sabbath-worshiping Germans Kadavar with hesh kings The Shrine and Mondo Drag at Bottom of the Hill

Editor Pick

Sabbath aus Deutschland? Berlin trio Kadavar obviously worship at the altar of Oz, but they also light a few candles for 70's hard rockers like Pentagram and Uriah Heep, and even a little early Seger, for a horns-in-the-air inducing combination of no frills stoner jams and unapologetically riff heavy rock n' roll. As if you're neck weren't going to hurt enough already, the opening bands are The Shrine and Mondo Drag? Prepare ye'self for a wicked bangover.

Friday, May 9 9pm

Bottom of the Hill (1233 17th Street, San Francisco, CA) $12
